The details of the general transfer is available in the website 'www.celsgd.com'. The officers concerned shall download the copies from the website for effecting relieving/joining. The officers concerned are directed to relieve the incumbents after making suitable charge arrangements, subject to the code of conducts for elections to Local Self Government Institutions. The officers deputed for Census duty shall be relieved only after the completion of works assigned to them. The date of relief/joining may be reported in due-course. The earlier date of order will be considered for reckoning station seniority for those officers transferred and posted in the same District.
